ADULT MANNERS

Children learn from adults, which is why the latter have to be role models. While you grow up, you will witness a few events that may not be pleasant. Talk with your parents about these situations and ask what they think of them.

While waiting for the traffic, two adult drivers begin to shout at each other. Others just keep quiet even though they see fighting.

You see a family at a diner. The children are messing around and the adults ignore them. Instead, they are busy on their phones.

You see an adult woman scolding and shouting at a homeless man saying he should be working instead of begging.

You see a shoplifter throwing fits after getting caught. She is cursing and destroying the shop's merchandise.

Why do some adults fall short of observing good manners?
